

Mediterranean garden

On July I came back to see how the garden has changed. It's coming along nicely. The trees and shrubs have grown new leaves; the perennials have gained almost their full height, some of them were in flowering. I had a chance to take some new photos. Meanwhile I've noticed that even the swallow birds are using the pool. Absolutely fantastic!

07/08/2016 13:08 by Landstudio 015